

School Bus Surveillance System

ICOP Model 4000™

...problems are compounded by crowded buses, a mixture of different-age students, and a sense that no one is watching. "Bullying occurs more frequently where there is less supervision. It's a crime of opportunity, and you're not going to do it where you're going to get caught. The school bus is a very fertile arena for inappropriate behavior."

Robert Shoop, Professor of Education Law
Kansas State University
November 2006

The ICOP Solution

The School Bus Video Surveillance System from ICOP Digital provides complete video coverage of the school bus including passenger cabin, bus entrance, and outside the bus for any Stop Arm violators or traffic violations. The ICOP system provides reliable high quality video and audio recording of incidents while vehicle is in operation. School Districts can upgrade tape based system to a dependable digital fully featured mobile surveillance system that will record everything on-board.

Solidly founded in the Law Enforcement market, ICOP provides unique features to tie school bus surveillance and community first responders.

“Terrorism on school buses ranks No. 3 on a list of potential U.S. targets, according to the Georgia Emergency Management Agency (GEMA). This figure is not so surprising once you realize that yellow buses — of which there are 450,000 in daily service nationwide — are mobile, high profile and easy targets.”
